

humble arts foundation

Dear Friends,

It has been almost two years since Humble debuted with group show. The idea was simple: create a venue that focuses on the work of emerging fine art photographers and see what happens. Well, what happened was a ton of generous support from the photography community and beyond. Your support motivated us to publish Story, add solo show, and curate exhibitions at 3rd Ward, New Century Artists, Milk Studios and Gitana Rosa Gallery. In short, your support allowed us to become a non-profit that seeks to advance the careers of emerging fine art photographers.

We have achieved a great deal of success in a short period of time. However, with this success comes a new set of challenges and responsibilities. As we plan for the future of Humble and all of its projects, our most important goal now is the long-term sustainability of our organization.

We have a lot of work to do, so I am asking for your help. In the coming year the Humble Arts Foundation anticipates increasing spending in order to curate more exhibitions at galleries across NYC, make our semi-annual grant, and cover our growing operating costs.

As a new non-profit with limited funds and fund-raising expertise, we simply cannot handle these costs without your much appreciated financial contribution. Please consider making a $20 or more tax deductible gift to the Humble Arts Foundation. By giving to Humble, you will be helping to provide opportunities for emerging fine art photographers across the globe.

Humble Arts Foundation is a sponsored project of Fractured Atlas, a non-profit arts service organization. Contributions in behalf of Humble Arts Foundation, Inc. may be made payable to Fractured Atlas and are tax deductible to the extent permitted by the law.

Please send contributions to Humble Arts Foundation, Inc., P.O.B 1157, Old Chelsea Station, New York, NY 10113. Checks should be made payable to Fractured Atlas, in behalf of Humble Arts Foundation, Inc. in the memo line.

Thank you for your generous support.

Sincerely,

Amani Olu
Founder and Executive Director
Humble Arts Foundation